They will speak before the Republican clubs and associations and try to build up an organization in every locality from Montank Point to Buffalo. They hope thus to elect delegates to the State Convention who will be favorable to Mr. Miller, who is a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination. He believes that a majority of the delegates in the convention will be opposed to Pintt, while Platt and his followers are equally sanguine over the outlook. There are any number of candidates for Governor among the Platt men. They have had their booms hunched for six months or more. The impression is steadily growing fhat Mr. Platt will attempt to renominate Governor Morton, in order to restore harmony among his ewn followers. If he displays a preference for any one candidate he will incur the displeasure of the dozen others.

Chairman Charles W. Hackett, of the State Committee, who has been enjoying a vacation at his home in Utten, will return in a few days. He will spend the season with Mr. Platt at Manhattan Beach, from which place the affairs of the organization in this State will be directed until September.
